For the use of BREWERIES.

THE subscriber has invented a Mashine for the purpose of mashing malt, for the use of Breweries, which will perform that part of the Brewer's business with much less time and trouble than is usually occupied in the common way, with this advantage, that manual labor will be entirely saved, as this machine is worked by a horse, at the same time that he is performing his usual business, with only a small addition to the mill work necessary in Breweries. This machine is now in operation at the Brewery of Luke & Isaac W. Morris, Pear street, Philadelphia.

WE do hereby certify, that we have used Wm. Ellis's new invented Mashing Machine in our Brewery, and think it a valuable improvement, and worthy the attention of those concerned in Breweries.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch-Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New-York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Busiletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation, They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns, spoken of with the highest satisfaction.

UNION, (Penn.) June 28.

To prevent imposition upon the citizens of Fayette County, it is proper they should be informed that two of the Grand Jury, Jame Blackiston and John Wileman, declined signed either for the Chief Justice or for James Ross; and yet have never concealed their sentiments as private citizens in favor of the latter candidate. Two others of the Jury were absent at the time, but who, from their political characters, it is believed, would if present, have declared themselves in the same way. Others, who although summoned to serve on the Gand Jury, could not attend at this time, are also supposed to give a preference to James Ross; not only on the score of his being a citizen of the Western Country of eminent talents, but as being a steady supporter of the Constitution and laws of his Country; by which their real independence and happiness will be most likely secured and promoted. Considering therefore the pains which have been taken by some active friends of the Chief Justice upon this occasion, there is but little room for triumph on their part.

Were the people of the Western country on this important occasion, left individually to judge for themselves, the smallest attention to their interest could scarce fail to direct the proper choice.

CHARLESTON, June 6.

THE LAUNCH.

THE JOHN ADAMS,

The United States, Frigate, built by Mr. PAUL PRITCHARD, from the subscriptions of the citizens of Charleston, was yesterday, happily at 8 o'clock in the morning introduced to her element, with a rapid but beautiful movement. She hurried from off her ways before a number of the shores and blocks could be knocked away, and while a number of the workmen (nine it is said) were under her.

The day first appointed for the launching of this ship was Monday last, at 8 o'clock in the Morning. Notwithstanding the distance of Mr. Paul Pritchard's yard, where the ship was built, which is above 3 miles from the city, the number of spectators was immense; they flocked up by land and water, and the road and river were crowded with carriages and boats. At the expected hour, when cleared of impediments, she started and run three fourths of her length handsomely and then from the burning of her ways halted to the great disappointment of her anxious well-wishers.

A profuse and elegant collation fully sufficient for 500 persons, was provided by the Committe of the Subscribers as a social offering to their fellow-citizens. His excellency Governer Rutledge, Major General Pinckney Brigadier Gen. Washington, Col. Read, and a great number of other respectable characters, partook of the entertainment, and after dinner the following toasts were drank.

NEW-YORK, July 6.

FROM HAMBURGH.

A Report has lately circulated in the American papers, of the British fleet having blockaded Hamburg, or rather the mouth of the Elbe. The following intelligence, received from Hamburg, will prove what has given rise to this report:

"Last week we had the following report, of English gun-boats being stationed at the Mouth of the Elbe, in order to cut off the communication between Hamburgh and Holland, by the way of the Watten or (Binnen Waters.) This created at first a considerable uneasiness upon our Underwriters, who ceased to sign any Policies; however, it was soon there explained. That they had arrested in England an Irishman impeached of Treason, on whom a Plan of Cruxhaven and its environs had been found; and being afraid that the French might from France or Holland undertake a landing on the Hanoverian dominions, these gun boats had been sent there for its protection. Now our Underwriters are again insuring to Holland over the Watten at 2 per. cent.

We were yesterday obligingly favoured, by a respectable Merchant of this city, with Barbadoes newspapers to the 18th of June, from which we have extracted the following articles of information—and is all they contain.

BARBADOES, April 27.

The homeward bound fleet, this day sailed for St. Christophers, under a strong convoy:

May 25.

This morning we had an alarm, which is not yet discharged: should we learn what fleet, before this is issued, we shall signify it.

The prevalence of a billious fever so rapid in its mortal effect, as to give no time for Medicinal aid, is much to be regretted: several persons have already fallen victims to it; amongst whom, we sincerely lament a Miss Mary Toody, lately from Europe, sister to Mrs Orderson, this amiable young lady, had but a short illness, and was buried yesterday.

We have not been able to issue our Paper at the usual hour to day, owing to the indisposition of our foreman and the alarm.

☞ Just as we were about to put this paper to press, the fleet from Cork came round the point.—32 days passage.

May 28.

The West India fleet sailed from Portsmouth on the 31st ult. under convoy of the Quebec and Dryad frigates; and Admiral Lord Hugh Seymour in the Sans Pariel of 80 guns, we understand comes out to take the command on this station.

June 1.

A Republican privateer brig of sixteen 9 pounders and 130 men, prize to his Majesty's ship Amphitrite, arrived yesterday, which she captured on the 22d April, in lat. 20, after a chace of 8 hours. The above brig was formerly the Catharine, belonging to Messrs. Le Gay and Evans of this town, which being taken by the enemy was fitted out at Guadaloupe, and hah sailed only a few days from Point a Petre when the Amphitrite fell in with her.

Yesterday a French Privateer brig of 18 guns was sent in here by one of our frigates,

June 4.

The ships Barbados, Plaiter, Thomas, Renewal, John Avon, and Esther, constant traders from this Island, arrived here on Sunday last from Loudon, in company with the Jamaica and other West Indiamen, under convoy of the Quebec frigate, which proceeded to leeward the same day.

June 5.

We are sorry to state the loss of the ships Edwards, and Mary, the former belonging to the house of Messrs. Parkinson and Caley of this Town, and the latter bound to Martinico; both from Liverpool. They got a shore on Tuesday night last on the Coblers rocks off Scull bay, and have since (particularly the Mary) been almost totally dashed to pieces. The cargo of the Edward, although much damaged will mostly be saved.

We yesterday gave some important information under the head of "POSTSCRIPT, "which we received by the schooner Hound from Barbadoes: and publish, this day, extracts from Barbadoes newspapers to the 18th June. And, as it is probable some of our trimming Editors may say, that, by the Packet, arrived at that port, it was reasonable to suppose, extracts from papers received by her arrival, should appear in the Barbadoes papers, we wish to inform them, that the Packet arrived on the 10th June, and that the Hound sailed from thence on the day following; and, of course, as the Barbadoes papers are only printed twice a week, they could not contain extracts from the London prints received by her.

Extract of a letter from an American in Algiers to his friend in Annopolis

"The Dey is very much pleased with the vessels sent by our government, viz. a brig of 22 nine pounders, a schooner of 20 sixes, and another of 16 do. and has received them as a full discharge of all arrears due to him by the United States.

"The Americans are now the most favored nation in this place, and on that account we were permitted to walk round and examine all the fortifications, &c. where not even the English, who are next in favor, were permitted to enter.

"The people of Algiers are much more civilized than I expected to find them; the slaves are treated with less severity than formerly and christians are not exposed to insult in walking the streets. They have, however, some remains of their former barbarity; when the Dey declarad war against France, the French consul, and all other Frenchmen here, were loaded with chains, and kept to hard labour for some days, when they were relieved at the interceſſion of all the foreign conſuls in the city, but are ſtill conſidered as priſoners."

Yeſterday arrived the ſhip Diſpatch captain Buſby 61 days from Hamburg, with a cargo of Gin, Iron, and Hemp, conſigned to Coit and Woolſey. Our papers by her are only to the 2d May and their contents have been anticipated by our London accounts to the 12th. A paſſenger on board informs, that at the time of the veſſel's ſailing, the Archduke had entered Switzerland.

We have been favoured by captain Buſby with a long liſt of ſhipping left at Hamburg which we are obliged to omit till our next, on account of the lateneſs of the hour at which it was received laſt evening.

The United States armed Brig Norfolk has arrived at the watering place in this port from a cruize.

The Hon. Peleg Arnold has been elected Chief Juſtice, Ezekiel Gardner jun. ſecond juſtice, Walter Cork third, Joſhua Becknel fourth, and Thomas Hoicen fifth juſtice of the Supreme judicial Court of the State of Rhode Iſland.

Juſt arrived by one of the Staten-Iſland Ferry Boats, part of the 24 pounders, double headed ſhot, and boxes of canniſter ſhot, from on board the Frigate Conſtellation, capt. Truxton, now lying below.

BOSTON, July 3.

OF FOREIGN POLITICS.

☞ We have little to add to the Foreign Details we have already laid before our readers, other than to confirm them. The haſte in which newſpapers are collated and iſſued render them liable to many errors.—Curioſity is ever on the tip-toe of expectation; and the deſire to gratify it will frequently catch at thoſe fleeting narratives which are ſet in motion by evil-deſigned or frivilous perſons; and wafted about on pinions of credulity:—It is, therefore, the duty of an Editor to confirm or contradict as well as to announce. In diſcharging this duty, we repeat,

☞ That the French have been driven from Suabia over the Rhine into France, and Switzerland:—That the confederate Auſtrian and Ruſſian army has been victorious in Italy; that it has obliged the French to evacuate three or four Provinces, in the Ciſalpine Republic;—to croſs the Adda; and to entrench in the ſtrong-holds at Lodi—leaving Mantua and Peſchiera, with their garriſons, to their fate:—That the communication between the French main army at Lodi, and the diviſions at Rome and Naples (the evacuation of which is not confirmed) is cut off;—and that the Engliſh, Turks and Ruſſians, were landing forces in Italy to aſſiſt the loyal Neapolitans in recovering their capital:—that the Breſt fleet had ſailed from that port:—That its numbers were variouſly narrated—ſome accounts making it conſiſt of 25 ſail of the line and 10 frigates; that it had been paid three months in advance, and was victualled for five months;—that it had not returned;—nor had it ſteered for Ireland.

Conjecture gives various deſtinations to the French fleet.—Portugal, is ſaid by ſome to be its object.—Toulon, by others as a rendezvous from which ſquadrons may be directed to required quarters.—Naples by others, to reinforce the army there.—The Adriatic, by others, to cut up the Turkiſh and Ruſſian, ſquadrons therein.—Alexandria, by others, to reinforce or bring off Buonaparte, and his veterans, who are wanted nearer home;—and the Red Sea, by others, to aſſiſt the Conqueror of Egypt, in his operations againſt the Engliſh ſettlements in India.

☞ Quidnuncs now want the ſpeed of the Telegraph to conduct across the Atlantic intelligence of the events which muſt be hourly occurring on the theatre of European warfare.

The principle of warfare lately adopted by Ruſſians is only copied from the orders of the French Convention, which was that the "Republican armies ſhould give no quarter to Engliſh and Hanoverian priſoners." When this decree was received in the United States, the French apologiſts chuckled mightily, and attempted to juſtify it on the old principle of "neceſſity," and as a mean of bringing the war to a ſpeedy iſſue.—Now the Ruſſians have imitated the Paris faſhion, theſe kind ſouls have commenced violent advocates of humanity; and brand Suwarrow, and his legions, with every brutal and degraded epithet. It is true, the French armies refuſed to obey the ſanguinary decree of thir political rulers;—and it is not known that the Ruſſians have executed theirs;—it is certain, that the oblequey daſhed at Suwarrow only ſerves to make the portrat of the French Councils more horrid. It will be difficult for even Suwarrow to be guilty of inhuman perpetrations to which there may be found numerous parellels in the hiſtory of the French Revolution— he is deſired to equal the ſcene at Unnderwalden, is given in this day's Centinel

If it were not known that Gen Suwarrow is a Ruſſian, we ſhould ſuppoſe from the deſcription of him in the French papers, that he were a Frenchman.

A letter from Hamburgh, dated April 26 ſays, the French continued relaxing their ſeverities, towards American veſſels, and inſurance on American veſſels and property either to or from the U. S. had fallen to 12 per cent.

In the vicinity of Gibralter there are 16 ſail of the line of Britiſh ſhips, in queſt of the Breſt fleet.

A very hot preſs of ſeamen has taken place throughout Great Britain, to man the numerous ſquadrons fitted and fitting for ſea.

The yellow fever is making dreadful havoc in ſeveral iſlands in the Weſt Indies, particularly Cuba.

The French account, dated Milan, March 30, containing ſtatements of the capture of Verona, &c. &c. by them, has proved to be one of the groſſeſt falſehoods ever nurtured in the rank hotbed of a Directorial preſs:—and is equalled in turpitude only by the American Jacobiuical forgery of the reſtitution of the money ſtolen by the French from on board the ſhip PIGOU, ſome time ſince ſent in Bourdeaux.

SALEM, July 2,

The accounts in our laſt that Capt. Ruſt, who was captured and carried into Bayonne was cleared, was premature. Some appearances gave him hopes that it would be ſo.

Accounts from Surinam ſay, that the Governor of Surinam has orders from home not to ſuffer privateers of any nation to bring American prizes into that port; and if any ſhould be brought in, to deliver them up to the owners with coſts. Two French privateers were at Surinam, to ſail in 3 days for Cayenne.

GENTLEMEN,

I WILL now obſerve on the article of cloathing. You ſay, in 1799, what you paid for, coſt £1046 3 10 and that you conſumed of what was made, in the houſe 383 0 3

making together £1429 4 1

Do you ſee any ſuch article as cloathing paid for from the year 1770 to 1776? If you do, it is a mere trifle. The balance againſt you on this count, in my opinion, is about £1000.

But your friend W. as if he had raiſed a wall of impregnable defence round you, quotes my words in a former number, viz. "we are waiting for yourſelves (meaning the managers I ſuppoſe) not for W. or any unknown perſon, to tell us what is the reaſon of this obvious declenſion of labor?" Then he exultingly adds, "now where is your comparative ſtatement to ſhew this obvious declenſion?" Have patience, gentlemen, and you ſhall ſee.

THE COMPARISON.

In 1797 the profits of the labor of 417 paupers was	£ 465 9 8½
In 1799 the profits of 605 paupers was	87 6 4

In 1799 your debts unpaid for which orders were given were	£7422 5 0½
Bal. againſt you on this count is	£6125 2 0

Beſides which I know very well you owed heavy debts, for which no orders were given; but theſe I paſs over, not wiſhing like W to dwell upon a ſpot of no moment.

After this ſpecimen of modern times, I will give you a little of old times, that we may ſee what the public have gained by the late famous revolution in your houſe.

In 1770 two hundred and ninety paupers, men, women and children, of the ſame deſcription as your paupers conſiſt of, manufactured 4,741 yards of linen, 830 yards of woolens, 380 pair of ſtockings, 213 pair of ſhoes, 4,448 lbs. of nails, and picked 13 tons of oakum, beſides which a quantity of linen was wove for perſons out of the houſe who paid for weaving the ſame, and the cloathing for perſons reſiding in both your houſes were manufactured therein except a very few articles.

In 1771 three hundred and twenty one paupers made up 4,902 yards of linen, 1875 yards of woolens, 275 pair of ſtockings, 311 pair of ſhoes, 3,176 lb. of nails; they alſo picked 5½ tons of oakum, and bleached 15,000 yards of linens, beſides which, a large quantity of weaving was taken into the houſe upon hire, and the poor of the Alms Houſe, Houſe of Employ, and in the Pennſylvania Hoſpital, were all cloathed with the manufactures of the houſe, beſides a number elſewhere, who were entitled to the benefit of the poor tax—although only about one third of thoſe 321 perſons were able to work.

In 1772, three hundred and fifty eight paupers, made up 5,202 yards of linen 1536 yards of woollen, 190 pair of ſtockings, 306 pair of ſhoes, and bleached 1200 yards of linen, beſides which they made a conſiderable quantity of matts and points, and weaving was taken in on hire.

In 1773, three hundred and twenty ſeven paupers, made 3,986 yards of linen, 713 yards of woollen, 169 pair of ſtockings, 112 pair ſhoes, and picked 7½ tons of oakum, and made a conſiderable quantity of matts and points, beſides weaving and bleaching done upon hire.

In 1774, two hundred and eighty paupers made 3347 yards linen, 583 yards of woollen, 201 pair of ſtockings, 253 pair of ſhoes and picked 9 tons of oakum, and made ſundry ſmall articles though moſt of thoſe 280 people were helpleſs, old and infirm and incapable of labor.

In 1775, three hundred and twenty ſeven paupers, made 3437 yards of linen, 704 yards of woollens, 186 pair of ſtockings, 237 pair of ſhoes, and picked 9 tons and 3 hundred weight of oakum; the poor of the Alms-Houſe, Houſe of Employ, in the Hoſpital and elſewhere, entitled to the benefit of the poor tax were clothed this year, although about two thirds of the patients in the Alms-Houſe were incapable of ſervice.

In 1776, four hundred and ten paupers made 832 yards of linen, 460 yards of woollens, 189 pair of ſtockings, 114 pair of ſhoes, 510 lbs. of nails, and 2000 lbs. of thread, and picked 4 tons and 4 hundred weight of oakum, beſides cloathing 356 perſons with their manufactures, when about three fourths of theſe 410 perſons were incapable of labor.

Now, gentlemen, let us ſee what you have done?

In 1799, ſix hundred and five paupers of the ſame deſcription of people as the above, have earned by their labor a profit of 45 each, throwing their 153 children out of the queſtion, who do not work, one with another; and the whole value of their labor, giving them one half of the goods manufactured for making them up, is 16s8 each and no more.

What think you of all this? Is it poſſible that any man can wonder at my queſtion, "what is the reaſon of this obvious declenſion in the labor of patients of the Houſe of Employ?

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

FROM THE COMMENCEMENT

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, o Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat tipe, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the exent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will compriſe the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors —founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"Philadelphia, June 15, 1798.

"To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom, render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.
